Legislative Updates

What laws were passed during the 86th Regular Session? And what does that mean for how you investigate and prosecute crimes? Find out answers to these questions and many more as we travel to 22 Texas cities this summer with our Legislative Update. All attendees will receive a copy of the 2019–21 Legislative Update book with a Penal Code table of offenses and a list of new crimes. Register today online at www.tdcaa.com/training!

It is also time to order your copies of the 2019–21 Penal Code, Code of Criminal Procedure, and Annotated Criminal Laws of Texas, the only criminal code books you'll need! Online pre-ordering for these new editions is now online—visit www.tdcaa.com/books to place your order, or print out the PDF order form (also at our website), fill it out, and fax it to 512/478-4112.

Each Legislative Update session is from 1:30 to 5 p.m. and is worth 3 hours of 3186 TCOLE and CLE credit. The cost is $100 for paid TDCAA members (meaning, you have paid membership dues for the year) who pre-register online (up until a week before the training) and $150 for all others, including paid TDCAA members who register on-site.

Pre-registration for the 2019 Legislative Updates is online only. Please register via our website at www.tdcaa.com/training and choose a city near you. Some locations are subject to maximum capacities, and online registration will be closed after pre-registration meets the maximum number of seats. We will not share email addresses or use them for any nefarious purpose.

New Books from TDCAA

Annotated Criminal Laws of Texas 2019–21 (bound, available in August)
Case cites, practice tips, and charts based on years of questions from Texas prosecutors follow the statutes in this book, which includes the Penal Code, Code of Criminal Procedure, Controlled Substances Act, juvenile and protective order portions of the Family Code, and Rules of Evidence. $74

Code of Criminal Procedure 2019–21 and Penal Code 2019–21 (spiral, available in August)
The CCP and PC are the only criminal code books that feature underline/strikethrough format for 2019 legislative changes, commentary from prosecutors who spent their time at the Capitol, and spiral binding that allows the book to lie open flat. For the first time, this year's PC and CCP will include annotations, and the PC will also feature the Texas Rules of Evidence. $45 CCP & $40 PC

CD of 1989–2017 Penal Codes and Codes of Criminal Procedure (available in August)
Every previous edition of the spiral-bound PC and CCP published by TDCAA is now available on CD. Each edition is included as a separate PDF. $65

Legislative Update 2019–21 (bound, available in August)
The first look at relevant changes for Texas prosecutors, our Legislative Update describes amendments to the PC, CCP, Family Code, Controlled Substances Act, and more, plus a chart of new crimes in 2019 and an updated listing of Penal Code offenses. $24

Texas Crimes (bound, available August)
Texas Crimes is the only single volume of the 1,800-plus crimes found outside the Penal Code. We list each code alphabetically, include a separate cite for each crime statute, describe the criminal conduct, and give the punishment range. $22

Quick Penal Code Reference (laminated chart, available in August)
This handy laminated double-sided guide lists the crimes in the Penal Code by punishment category (felonies and misdemeanors) and sets out the punishment ranges for all. $10

Charging Manual (three-ring binder with CD, available in September)
This invaluable resource provides charging language for indictments and informations for virtually all Class B and above Penal Code crimes, as well as a few commonly charged non-Penal Code crimes. Prose and variables are all included in one handy notebook, along with citations to important cases. $175 for binder or CD; $200 for both.

Online pre-ordering for these new editions is now available. Go to www.tdcaa.com/books to place your order, or complete the PDF order form (at our website) and fax it to 512/478-4112.
